

The Owingsville Outlook.

VOL XXI

OWINGSVILLE, KENTUCKY, THURSDAY, JULY 5, 1900.

NO. 50

JUNE BARGAINS AT GILLON'S.

In order to reduce my stock of MENS' AND BOYS' CLOTHING, FURNISHING GOODS ETC., X

I will during the month of June offer these goods at greatly reduced prices. I also have a large stock of LADIES' and MISSSES' SLIPPERS at prices that will close them out this month. Come in and see them before you buy.

JAMES GILLON.

TERMS CASH.

57 When you have a new item or wish to communicate with THE OUTLOOK office by "phone ring up."

As a rule a man's fool; When it's hot he wants it cool; When it's cold he wants it hot; Always wanting what is not.—Louville Post.

Next Monday will be County Court day.

The late rains made a fine potato crop secured.

For a stretch of time no description goes to that.—PATERSON & CATELY.

Last Friday was hot, but Saturday cool.

It's nearly hot enough for that old question.

T. S. Shroud has moved his furniture stock to the C. H. Hoon store room.

The crops where not injured by the recent rains growing satisfactorily.

Eugene Brother has bought the interest of his partner Turner Perry in the grocery store.

There are several cases of cholera in the county, probably caused by eating new potatoes.

E. C. Paxton, Dentist, located over J. M. Richardson's store. Offices hours 8 to 12 a. m.; 1 to 5 p. m.

L. C. Reynolds, just from S. N. S. & R. R. Co., will begin teaching at 9 A. M. at Washington Branch school hours.

They are eating Georgia peaches in Louisville, and perhaps incidentally booming the extract of Jamison ginger market.

Get prices on the Champion Plover & Cottontail, S. C. Lewis & Son, Owingsville, Ky. & Louisville telephone line directory in several of the poles.

DANIELS, R. R., Cheshire—Left for the trip west Tuesday night of last week had a narrow escape from being run over by the train at Mt. Sterling Tuesday afternoon.

J. H. Richard was in Mt. Sterling Saturday to 70 cents to one of the men who grew onions on his Montgomery Co. farm.

The excess of rain has almost destroyed the grain crop in the Dark District of Western Kentucky.

The Louisville Courier says that of Blacker County onions broke the record for the 1899 crop last week at that city, bringing $19.

Read!—I have bought the stock of Dr. John H. Hoon, the C. H. Hoon store room, and desire to make room to put all my goods in one house. I will sell at greatly reduced prices for thirty days.

T. S. SHROUD.

The wheat threshers are moving lively. Every few days a traction engine goes through town, and the threshers passed through Monday.

As this edition was being run from the press the glorious Fourth was passing, and the understanding was that we would be twenty-four hours passing a given point.

Arthur T. Byron had the misfortune to sever the arteries in his wrist by the inexperienced hand of the local surgeon. The wound is a severe one.

The Spencer Hoo Farm of 320 acres near Reynoldsburg was bought at the Commissioners' sale last Friday by John Fraley and Wm. A. Young, of Morehead, at $48 per acre.

A show fell every hour or so Wednesday evening, but the weather was not too bad. The downpour was about as heavy for a considerable while as ever seen.

Moses Anna and Mrs. Peter gave a peach picnic to their sons, of course, those accomplished young hostesses made their guests enjoy the occasion to the full.

Under the circumstances remaining in the Owingsville post office July 2d, 1900: Miss Maude Reynolds, Miss Mattie Bartlett, Rosella Riggs, Mrs. McGehee, Mary Carter, Robert Green, Peoria called for show letters please say "adverised."

J. N. BYRON, P. M.

Eleven good citizens came down from Taylorsville last night to attend the trial of V. Hodges. Some of them finished taking their degrees. They were a jolly lot, and Jas. W. Tate's saloon treated them to a nice sandwich lunch after judge hours.

MAHOGANY.—Last Saturday morning Town Marshal James Edwards was out on patrol helping to maintain a sort of law of its own for D. N. Young. A keg of beer slipped and caught Jim's hand and he was thrown to the ground. He had four fingers on the left hand. He suffered very much coming to town. Dr. Taubee dressed his fingers.

C. H. Hoon's Estate.—J. J. Lee, ex-convict, sold to C. H. Hoon his interests and undertaking, and stock and leased him the building for five years, all belonging to the estate of C. H. Hoon. Paxton & Denton have the estate's furniture car and safe.

Mrs. Martha Dennee of Ma. Starling, writing that she always reads THE OUTLOOK with pleasure, as it is like a nice, long letter to her, and she sends many kind words to her kindred relations at State Valley, Prichly Ash and Naylor's Branch.

FIRE AT BETHEL.—The former J. S. Smart tobacco warehouse owned by Robertson Bros. burned Monday night with about 100,000 lbs. of tobacco. The building cost the Robertson Bros. $1,000.00 and were insured. Charley Williams lost a wagon and Will Henderson a buggy in the same fire.

HOOTERS.—The clouds got in a weeping way last Thursday afternoon and the rain began to fall between the town ridge and the mountains on the Menifee county line.

The aqueous warp and woof over took the land. The Lexington Chautauqua was held Saturday, but the rain was so hard that the speakers were very satisfactory to the listeners.

This shows what good crops of tobacco in good soil will average when properly cared for.

FOR A STYLISH TURNABOUT.—The next day the sales have been quite large.

CLOUDBURST.—The clouds got in a weeping way last Thursday afternoon and the rain began to fall between the town ridge and the mountains on the Menifee county line.

The aqueous warp and woof over took the land. The Lexington Chautauqua was held Saturday, but the rain was so hard that the speakers were very satisfactory to the listeners.

Mr. W. E. Collins of Harrison, Conn., came Tuesday for a month's visit to relatives at Carlisle.

MISS LUCY THOMPSON, of Mineral Wells, Texas, is a guest of Misses Clara and Mary Dawson spent Friday in Lexington.

Miss Carrie Banta, of Eminence, came last Friday to visit Miss Bertie Gault.

J. W. Ewing returned Monday evening to visit friends at Lexington.

Mr. and Mrs. Horace Lane visited relatives in Mt. Sterling Monday and Tuesday.

A good many townpeople are away on vacation to the Lexington Chautauqua this week.

Mr. W. E. Collins of Harrison, Conn., came Tuesday for a month's visit to relatives at Carlisle.

MISS LUCY THOMPSON, of Mineral Wells, Texas, is a guest of Misses Clara and Mary Dawson spent Friday in Lexington.

Mr. C. P. Mann and children returned Thursday from a week's visit to relatives at Carlisle.

Wm. L. Kilpatrick and son Lewis, of Mt. Sterling, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. John E. Nesbit.

Colonel George W. Clegg, of Mt. Sterling, came over last Sunday to visit Bob Catlett and other relatives.

Mrs. Carrie Laey and daughter left Saturday for a visit to Miss Alice Wilson, near Winchester.

Mr. W. S. Stratton, of Lexington, and wife, came Saturday for a visit to relatives at Mt. Sterling.

Mr. and Mrs. Armstrong returned to Mt. Sterling Saturday to be the guest of Miss Linda Daugherty.

MISS MARY WOODFORD, of Mt. Sterling, arrived Saturday to be the guest of Mrs. E. H. Goodpastor.

W. H. Pitt, foreman of the Lexington Gazette, was here calling on the young ladies Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Sofield took soon afterward.

PHILIPPE.—I have bought the stock of Dr. John H. Hoon, the C. H. Hoon store room, and desire to make room to put all my goods in one house. I will sell at greatly reduced prices for thirty days.

T. S. SHROUD.

The wheat threshers are moving lively. Every few days a traction engine goes through town, and the threshers passed through Monday.

As this edition was being run from the press the glorious Fourth was passing, and the understanding was that we would be twenty-four hours passing a given point.

Arthur T. Byron had the misfortune to sever the arteries in his wrist by the inexperienced hand of the local surgeon. The wound is a severe one.

The Spencer Hoo Farm of 320 acres near Reynoldsburg was bought at the Commissioners' sale last Friday by John Fraley and Wm. A. Young, of Morehead, at $48 per acre.

A show fell every hour or so Wednesday evening, but the weather was not too bad. The downpour was about as heavy for a considerable while as ever seen.

Moses Anna and Mrs. Peter gave a peach picnic to their sons, of course, those accomplished young hostesses made their guests enjoy the occasion to the full.

Under the circumstances remaining in the Owingsville post office July 2d, 1900: Miss Maude Reynolds, Miss Mattie Bartlett, Rosella Riggs, Mrs. McGehee, Mary Carter, Robert Green, Peoria called for show letters please say "adverised."

J. N. BYRON, P. M.

Eleven good citizens came down from Taylorsville last night to attend the trial of V. Hodges. Some of them finished taking their degrees. They were a jolly lot, and Jas. W. Tate's saloon treated them to a nice sandwich lunch after judge hours.

MAHOGANY.—Last Saturday morning Town Marshal James Edwards was out on patrol helping to maintain a sort of law of its own for D. N. Young. A keg of beer slipped and caught Jim's hand and he was thrown to the ground. He had four fingers on the left hand. He suffered very much coming to town. Dr. Taubee dressed his fingers.

LOUISVILLE TOBACCO MARKET.—By George R. Sudder, of the Standard Oil Co., Louisville, July 2d, 1900.—There has been some irregularity in the market this week; some of the grades have been low, but others have been high, and leaf and stem have been well. We sold a crop of 12 blads. from the ground up to J. H. Heileman, of Louisville, for $1,000.00, and also sold a crop for Hutchison & Downey, of Henry county, that averaged $10.74 on the road, or 14 blads. per pound.

THE OUTLOOK.

PERSONAL.

J. B. Coopertown went to Louisville Tuesday afternoon.

Arthur Power and Will Arnold from Mt. Sterling Saturday.

Misses Clara Sampson and Mary Dawson spent Friday in Lexington.

C. P. Mann visited relatives at Carlisle Sunday.

Misses Clara Sampson and Mary Dawson spent Friday in Lexington.

Mr. and Mrs. Horace Lane visited relatives in Mt. Sterling Monday and Tuesday.

A good many townpeople are away on vacation to the Lexington Chautauqua this week.

Mr. W. E. Collins of Harrison, Conn., came Tuesday for a month's visit to relatives at Carlisle.

MISS LUCY THOMPSON, of Mineral Wells, Texas, is a guest of Misses Clara and Mary Dawson spent Friday in Lexington.

Mr. C. P. Mann and children returned Thursday from a week's visit to relatives at Carlisle.

W. H. Pitt, foreman of the Lexington Gazette, was here calling on the young ladies Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Sofield took soon afterward.

PHILIPPE.—I have bought the stock of Dr. John H. Hoon, the C. H. Hoon store room, and desire to make room to put all my goods in one house. I will sell at greatly reduced prices for thirty days.

T. S. SHROUD.

The wheat threshers are moving lively. Every few days a traction engine goes through town, and the threshers passed through Monday.

As this edition was being run from the press the glorious Fourth was passing, and the understanding was that we would be twenty-four hours passing a given point.

Arthur T. Byron had the misfortune to sever the arteries in his wrist by the inexperienced hand of the local surgeon. The wound is a severe one.

The Spencer Hoo Farm of 320 acres near Reynoldsburg was bought at the Commissioners' sale last Friday by John Fraley and Wm. A. Young, of Morehead, at $48 per acre.

A show fell every hour or so Wednesday evening, but the weather was not too bad. The downpour was about as heavy for a considerable while as ever seen.

Moses Anna and Mrs. Peter gave a peach picnic to their sons, of course, those accomplished young hostesses made their guests enjoy the occasion to the full.

Under the circumstances remaining in the Owingsville post office July 2d, 1900: Miss Maude Reynolds, Miss Mattie Bartlett, Rosella Riggs, Mrs. McGehee, Mary Carter, Robert Green, Peoria called for show letters please say "adverised."

J. N. BYRON, P. M.

Eleven good citizens came down from Taylorsville last night to attend the trial of V. Hodges. Some of them finished taking their degrees. They were a jolly lot, and Jas. W. Tate's saloon treated them to a nice sandwich lunch after judge hours.

MAHOGANY.—Last Saturday morning Town Marshal James Edwards was out on patrol helping to maintain a sort of law of its own for D. N. Young. A keg of beer slipped and caught Jim's hand and he was thrown to the ground. He had four fingers on the left hand. He suffered very much coming to town. Dr. Taubee dressed his fingers.

PERSONAL.

J. B. Coopertown went to Louisville Tuesday afternoon.

Arthur Power and Will Arnold from Mt. Sterling Saturday.

Misses Clara Sampson and Mary Dawson spent Friday in Lexington.

C. P. Mann visited relatives at Carlisle Sunday.

Misses Clara Sampson and Mary Dawson spent Friday in Lexington.

Mr. and Mrs. Horace Lane visited relatives in Mt. Sterling Monday and Tuesday.

A good many townpeople are away on vacation to the Lexington Chautauqua this week.

Mr. W. E. Collins of Harrison, Conn., came Tuesday for a month's visit to relatives at Carlisle.

MISS LUCY THOMPSON, of Mineral Wells, Texas, is a guest of Misses Clara and Mary Dawson spent Friday in Lexington.

Mr. C. P. Mann and children returned Thursday from a week's visit to relatives at Carlisle.

W. H. Pitt, foreman of the Lexington Gazette, was here calling on the young ladies Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Sofield took soon afterward.

PHILIPPE.—I have bought the stock of Dr. John H. Hoon, the C. H. Hoon store room, and desire to make room to put all my goods in one house. I will sell at greatly reduced prices for thirty days.

T. S. SHROUD.

The wheat threshers are moving lively. Every few days a traction engine goes through town, and the threshers passed through Monday.

As this edition was being run from the press the glorious Fourth was passing, and the understanding was that we would be twenty-four hours passing a given point.

Arthur T. Byron had the misfortune to sever the arteries in his wrist by the inexperienced hand of the local surgeon. The wound is a severe one.

The Spencer Hoo Farm of 320 acres near Reynoldsburg was bought at the Commissioners' sale last Friday by John Fraley and Wm. A. Young, of Morehead, at $48 per acre.

A show fell every hour or so Wednesday evening, but the weather was not too bad. The downpour was about as heavy for a considerable while as ever seen.

Moses Anna and Mrs. Peter gave a peach picnic to their sons, of course, those accomplished young hostesses made their guests enjoy the occasion to the full.

Under the circumstances remaining in the Owingsville post office July 2d, 1900: Miss Maude Reynolds, Miss Mattie Bartlett, Rosella Riggs, Mrs. McGehee, Mary Carter, Robert Green, Peoria called for show letters please say "adverised."

J. N. BYRON, P. M.

Eleven good citizens came down from Taylorsville last night to attend the trial of V. Hodges. Some of them finished taking their degrees. They were a jolly lot, and Jas. W. Tate's saloon treated them to a nice sandwich lunch after judge hours.

MAHOGANY.—Last Saturday morning Town Marshal James Edwards was out on patrol helping to maintain a sort of law of its own for D. N. Young. A keg of beer slipped and caught Jim's hand and he was thrown to the ground. He had four fingers on the left hand. He suffered very much coming to town. Dr. Taubee dressed his fingers.

PERSONAL.

J. B. Coopertown went to Louisville Tuesday afternoon.

Arthur Power and Will Arnold from Mt. Sterling Saturday.

Misses Clara Sampson and Mary Dawson spent Friday in Lexington.

C. P. Mann visited relatives at Carlisle Sunday.

Misses Clara Sampson and Mary Dawson spent Friday in Lexington.

Mr. and Mrs. Horace Lane visited relatives in Mt. Sterling Monday and Tuesday.

A good many townpeople are away on vacation to the Lexington Chautauqua this week.

Mr. W. E. Collins of Harrison, Conn., came Tuesday for a month's visit to relatives at Carlisle.

MISS LUCY THOMPSON, of Mineral Wells, Texas, is a guest of Misses Clara and Mary Dawson spent Friday in Lexington.

Mr. C. P. Mann and children returned Thursday from a week's visit to relatives at Carlisle.

W. H. Pitt, foreman of the Lexington Gazette, was here calling on the young ladies Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Sofield took soon afterward.

PHILIPPE.—I have bought the stock of Dr. John H. Hoon, the C. H. Hoon store room, and desire to make room to put all my goods in one house. I will sell at greatly reduced prices for thirty days.

T. S. SHROUD.

The wheat threshers are moving lively. Every few days a traction engine goes through town, and the threshers passed through Monday.

As this edition was being run from the press the glorious Fourth was passing, and the understanding was that we would be twenty-four hours passing a given point.

Arthur T. Byron had the misfortune to sever the arteries in his wrist by the inexperienced hand of the local surgeon. The wound is a severe one.

The Spencer Hoo Farm of 320 acres near Reynoldsburg was bought at the Commissioners' sale last Friday by John Fraley and Wm. A. Young, of Morehead, at $48 per acre.

A show fell every hour or so Wednesday evening, but the weather was not too bad. The downpour was about as heavy for a considerable while as ever seen.

Moses Anna and Mrs. Peter gave a peach picnic to their sons, of course, those accomplished young hostesses made their guests enjoy the occasion to the full.

Under the circumstances remaining in the Owingsville post office July 2d, 1900: Miss Maude Reynolds, Miss Mattie Bartlett, Rosella Riggs, Mrs. McGehee, Mary Carter, Robert Green, Peoria called for show letters please say "adverised."

J. N. BYRON, P. M.

Eleven good citizens came down from Taylorsville last night to attend the trial of V. Hodges. Some of them finished taking their degrees. They were a jolly lot, and Jas. W. Tate's saloon treated them to a nice sandwich lunch after judge hours.

MAHOGANY.—Last Saturday morning Town Marshal James Edwards was out on patrol helping to maintain a sort of law of its own for D. N. Young. A keg of beer slipped and caught Jim's hand and he was thrown to the ground. He had four fingers on the left hand. He suffered very much coming to town. Dr. Taubee dressed his fingers.

PERSONAL.

J. B. Coopertown went to Louisville Tuesday afternoon.

Arthur Power and Will Arnold from Mt. Sterling Saturday.

Misses Clara Sampson and Mary Dawson spent Friday in Lexington.

C. P. Mann visited relatives at Carlisle Sunday.

Misses Clara Sampson and Mary Dawson spent Friday in Lexington.

Mr. and Mrs. Horace Lane visited relatives in Mt. Sterling Monday and Tuesday.

A good many townpeople are away on vacation to the Lexington Chautauqua this week.

Mr. W. E. Collins of Harrison, Conn., came Tuesday for a month's visit to relatives at Carlisle.

MISS LUCY THOMPSON, of Mineral Wells, Texas, is a guest of Misses Clara and Mary Dawson spent Friday in Lexington.

Mr. C. P. Mann and children returned Thursday from a week's visit to relatives at Carlisle.

W. H. Pitt, foreman of the Lexington Gazette, was here calling on the young ladies Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Sofield took soon afterward.

PHILIPPE.—I have bought the stock of Dr. John H. Hoon, the C. H. Hoon store room, and desire to make room to put all my goods in one house. I will sell at greatly reduced prices for thirty days.

T. S. SHROUD.

The wheat threshers are moving lively. Every few days a traction engine goes through town, and the threshers passed through Monday.

As this edition was being run from the press the glorious Fourth was passing, and the understanding was that we would be twenty-four hours passing a given point.

Arthur T. Byron had the misfortune to sever the arteries in his wrist by the inexperienced hand of the local surgeon. The wound is a severe one.

The Spencer Hoo Farm of 320 acres near Reynoldsburg was bought at the Commissioners' sale last Friday by John Fraley and Wm. A. Young, of Morehead, at $48 per acre.

A show fell every hour or so Wednesday evening, but the weather was not too bad. The downpour was about as heavy for a considerable while as ever seen.

Moses Anna and Mrs. Peter gave a peach picnic to their sons, of course, those accomplished young hostesses made their guests enjoy the occasion to the full.

Under the circumstances remaining in the Owingsville post office July 2d, 1900: Miss Maude Reynolds, Miss Mattie Bartlett, Rosella Riggs, Mrs. McGehee, Mary Carter, Robert Green, Peoria called for show letters please say "adverised."

J. N. BYRON, P. M.

Eleven good citizens came down from Taylorsville last night to attend the trial of V. Hodges. Some of them finished taking their degrees. They were a jolly lot, and Jas. W. Tate's saloon treated them to a nice sandwich lunch after judge hours.

MAHOGANY.—Last Saturday morning Town Marshal James Edwards was out on patrol helping to maintain a sort of law of its own for D. N. Young. A keg of beer slipped and caught Jim's hand and he was thrown to the ground. He had four fingers on the left hand. He suffered very much coming to town. Dr. Taubee dressed his fingers.

PERSONAL.

J. B. Coopertown went to Louisville Tuesday afternoon.

Arthur Power and Will Arnold from Mt. Sterling Saturday.

Misses Clara Sampson and Mary Dawson spent Friday in Lexington.

C. P. Mann visited relatives at Carlisle Sunday.

Misses Clara Sampson and Mary Dawson spent Friday in Lexington.

</div

